Product short description:

Antique Louis XVI “Demi-Lune” fireplace mantel carved in veined white Calacatta marble. This refined antique marble fireplace mantel takes its name from the half-moon shape of its jambs. Its distinctive character lies in the balance between the clean, rigorous lines of Neoclassical design and the gentle curves of its sides. Its compact dimensions create particularly harmonious proportions. Essential and minimalist in design, this antique marble fireplace mantel also works beautifully in contemporary interiors.
